Pres. Angus M. Cannon
Called to His Reward

Pres. David H. Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cannon, Tuesday and 6 o'clock for Salt Lake City, to attend the funeral of their bro the cannon, who died at the Cannon home in Liverpool, eight miles of the mouth of the mother died and was buried in the father and children New Orleans on an many trials in continuing their Nauvoo where they the Saints and Prophet Joseph Smith. With de Nauvoo, the children George Lamberth and their daughter the Salt Lake valley in arriving at Salt Lake, the work engaged in by Angus M. Cannon
the Nauvoo Legion. In helped Parowan, and while there made the first the first building erected in the canyon—until 1832, when he was the printing office of the Deseret and others to Parley's and recovered the settlers who Indian. From then went into the the bodies of Dr. Whittmore and Robert McIvor, who from the Church. In en the Church, he was the editor of the Deseret News, brother George Q. Cannon cannon's labors were and he led a very active

Funerals for
Salt Lake City, Friday, 11 a.m.